The Honorable Wilton B. Persons
Assistant to the President
The White House
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Persons:

The complaints contained in a letter dated 27 October 1958 to the President from Mr. [] a former employee of this Agency, have been investigated and I believe you may be interested in a brief resume of the case.

[] worked for this Agency as a contract employee for a year. Although he displayed some ability, [] value was limited by his negative and complaining attitude. Efforts to assist [] in overcoming this attitude failed and in July 1958 he voluntarily resigned.

Since resigning [] has apparently not been employed. Last month he requested re-employment with us in the same position and at the same salary he objected to earlier. We have filled his former position and do not propose to re-employ []

We have transmitted the foregoing information to the other recipients of copies of [] letter to the President. These included the Vice President and Senators Knowland, Johnson and Mansfield.

Respectfully yours,

SIGNED

Allen W. Dulles

STAT

Your letter to the President and to Mr. Allen W. Dulles complaining about certain deficiencies in this Agency were referred to me for investigation. Although my investigation indicates no substantial basis for any of your complaints, I will be happy to discuss them with you when you are next in Washington. Please contact my office for an appointment

STAT

Your covering letter to Mr. Dulles reveals a misunderstanding on your part as to the scope of your security agreement and the implication of the Espionage Laws. A representative from our Security Office has therefore already contacted you to re-emphasize and reiterate the meaning and importance of these documents.

Very truly yours,

/s/ Lyman Kirkpatrick
